After providing an initial quotation to give you an idea of the likely costs, we are happy to offer free site visits.

Site Visits are an ideal opportunity for you to view our portfolio, for us to view the proposed site and then to discuss your requirements in greater detail.

We then revise your quotation if required and provide a layout proposal (example right).

At West Country Marquees, we pride ourselves on our friendly, high level of service.

We are contactable at anytime & little things that we do such as having the person that provides your site visit present when your marquee is erected really helps the whole process run smoothly.
